

OBEDIENCE CLASS CHAMPIONSHIPS

WE HAVE A VERY IMPORTANT AND EXCITING ANNOUNCEMENT!!

Whilst it may have seemed that things had gone quiet on the Class Championships front, we can assure you that we have been very busy planning, arranging, researching and organising and plans are now really moving forward.

The most important and exciting news is that we now have a firm date and venue for the 2014 Obedience Class Championships.

We are exceptionally proud to announce that this inaugural gala event will be held on

Saturday 22 November 2014

At

The Kennel Club Building, Stoneleigh, Warwickshire

So please put this date in your diary and tell everyone you can, especially those not on the internet.

Remember all information regarding the Class Championships 2014 will be posted first on this page, on the Class Championships page on the ObedienceUK website and in Dog Training Weekly. Then on the Obedience Uk and Obedience World pages on facebook.

You can get all the news as it breaks by visiting the Obedience Class Championships page on facebook and click "Like".

More news on how you can all help turn this idea into reality will be posted very soon!