Show Secretary's Report

I would like to start by thanking the LKA committee for scheduling Rally for a second year, it was gratifying to see an increase in the entry.

This was a show to remember, if only for all the stories of the attempts to make it through the blizzard. I have to thank our scheduled judges: Marney Wells, Helen Chetwynd and Karen Kendall, and their scribes: Diane Hartopp, Louise Dexter and Joanne Syson, for their valiant attempts to get in. Unfortunately, the snow and transport system was against them.

Those that did make it through, both officials and competitors, were greeted with a warm LKA welcome at the NEC. I have to commend the competitors for their Rally spirit and understanding as we pulled out all the stops to ensure that the show could go on.

Special thanks have to go to: John Wykes, our Chief Steward, who worked hard to ensure that every competitor that made it through the snow got to work their round; Tony Lewenz, who stepped into judge both parts of Level 1; Mary Butterfield, whose first judging appointment came earlier than expected when she kindly volunteered to judge Level 2 Part 1; Kate Wykes who jumped into scribe for Mary and back-filled the Show Secretary role in the afternoon when I had to judge; Kim Sears, who scribed for Tony in the morning; Joanne Craig, who helped with the scoring (both of whom did an excellent job) and finally Claire Price who, although snow-bound, acted as liaison with all our stranded judges and scribes.

Congratulations to all our qualifiers, commiserations to those who didn't quite make it this time and our grateful thanks to all the competitors for your sportsmanship.

Rachel Bradley
